

The Faculty of Jewish Studies

The Arnold and Leona Finkler Institute of Holocaust Research

Invite you to a symposium entitled "In the Paths of Rescue: Rescuing Jews During and After the Holocaust" Marking the 81st anniversary of "Kristallnacht"

That will take place at Bar-Ilan University on Monday November 11, 2019 at the Beck Hall

13:30-14:00 Reception

14:00 – 14:15 Greetings:

Prof. Miriam Faust, Rector, Bar-Ilan University

Prof. Judy Baumel-Schwartz, Director, the Finkler Institute of Holocaust Research, Bar-Ilan University

First Session – Chair: Dr. Tehila Darmon Malka, Spiegel Fellow, Finkler Institute of Holocaust Research

14:15 – 14:35 Dr. Ruth Samuel Tenenholtz, Spiegel Fellow, "It Takes a Village – a border-crossing story of rescue"

14:35 – 14:55 Dr. Tamir Hod, Spiegel Fellow, "The Anonymous Rescuer of the Treblinka Death Camp"

Second Session – Chair: Billie Laniado, Spiegel Fellow, Finkler Institute of Holocaust Research

14:55 – 15:15 Dr. Ayala Nedivi, Spiegel Fellow, "The Eretz Israel Office in Budapest headed by Moshe Krause, "A rescue institute for tens of thousands of immigrants [in 1944]", how could that be?"

15:15 – 15:35 Dr. Mali Eisenberg, Spiegel Fellow, "Alfred Schwartzbaum and Rescue Efforts in Switzerland 1940-1945"

15:35 – 15:55 Dr. Sarah Rosen, Spiegel Fellow, "The Happiest Year of Our Lives": Removing children from Rumania and taking them to the Ilania Children's Home in Appeldorn, Holland"

15:55 – 16:00 Concluding Remarks: Prof. Judy Baumel-Schwartz